BACCHANALIA

The Artemis Room

Our private dining room, Artemis, is the inner sanctum of Bacchanalia, situated on the iconic 1 Mount Street. Named after Bacchus' secretive sister, Artemis offers escapism of the most sublime kind. This magnificent room features floor to ceiling windows overlooking Damien Hirst's sculptures and Berkeley Square. Our Greco-Roman feasting menus are ideal for an exquisite banqueting experience. Our award-winning Sommelier team will be able recommend wine pairings; the experience further extends to our sublime sharing samovar cocktails.

SCOTT'S

MAYFAIR

The Private Room

The Private Room at Scott's pays homage to the restaurant's status as Mayfair's premier destination for seafood, with panels of gilded and painted glass mirrors depicting various sea creatures, in addition to a marble-topped fish tank bar. Bespoke menus are available, incorporating your favourite Scott's dishes, with wine pairings, chosen for you by our sommelier.

DAPHNE'S

The Conservatory

Daphne's is an old favourite in West London, and for good reason. Just a few minutes' walk from South Kensington station you'll find a tribute to Venetian food, drink and design, including a spectacular private room, The Conservatory. The space is as charming in summer as it is in winter, with features including a retractable roof and an open fireplace.
